

EAST RENFREWSHIRE GOLF CLUB'S POLICY ON THE SECURE HANDLING, USE, STORAGE, RETENTION AND DESTRUCTION OF DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

Introduction

1. The Code of Practice ("the Code") is published by Scottish Ministers under section 122 of Part V of The Police Act 1997 ("the 1997 Act"). The Code sets out obligations for registered bodies, counter signatories and other recipients of disclosure information issued under the 1997 Act and the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 ("the 2007 Act").

General Principles

2. East Renfrewshire Golf Club complies with the Code and the 1997 and 2007 Acts regarding the handling, holding, storage, destruction and retention of disclosure information provided by Disclosure Scotland. East Renfrewshire Golf Club complies with the Data Protection Act 2018 ("the 2018 Act"). East Renfrewshire Golf Club will provide a copy of this policy to anyone who requests to see it.

Usage

3. East Renfrewshire Golf Club will use disclosure information only for the purpose for which it was requested and provided. Disclosure information will not be used or disclosed in a manner incompatible with that purpose. We will not share disclosure information with a third party unless the subject has given their written consent and has been made aware of the purpose of the sharing.

Handling

4. East Renfrewshire Golf Club recognise that, under section 124¹ of the 1997 Act and sections 66 and 67 of the 2007 Act, it is a criminal offence to disclose disclosure information to any unauthorised person. Disclosure information is only shared with those authorised to see it in the course of their duties.

Access and Storage

5. East Renfrewshire Golf Club do not keep disclosure information on an individual's personnel file. It is kept securely, in lockable, non-portable storage containers. Access to storage units is strictly controlled and is limited to authorised named individuals, who are entitled to see such information in the course of their duties.

Retention

6. Disclosure information will be stored WITHOUT limit of time. Significant care is to be expected in retaining data of this nature as it may include sensitive personal data (under the Data Protection Act, 1998). For the 2007 Act, this will be the date an individual ceases to do regulated work for the organisation. This means secure data principles will be followed to ensure no problems arise.
